

SOCIETY AND CLUBS

MISS MARGARET D. FORBES

WILL BE DEBUTANTE AT CAPITAL

MISS DOROTHY GOWAN.

Miss Dorothy Gowan, daughter of Col. and Mrs. J. B. Gowan, is one of the most prominent of the army circle debutantes at Washington, D. C.

Entertainments

CHARMING VISITING GIRLS ENTERTAINED AT DINNER

Many most delightful social affairs are being given in honor of two popular visiting girls, the Misses Elizabeth and Crenshaw Waller, of St. Louis, who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crump. One of the most enjoyable of the many entertainments extended to them will be the dinner with which Miss Anne Carter will compliment them on Tuesday evening in her home on Central avenue. An attractive decorative motif will be carried in crimson roses on the table, where the guests will be seated to enjoy the delicious menu.

Miss Carter will be powered for the evening in a frock of cream lace and the honor guests will also be beautifully dressed. Miss Elizabeth Waller will wear a French frock of blue and white, and Miss Crenshaw Waller will be gowned in black tulle embroidered in sequins.

MR. AND MRS. CLEAGE TENDER SILVER WEDDING RECEPTION

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Deaderick Cleage, 1832 Monroe avenue, was the scene of a very happy affair on Monday evening, when they celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage with a reception. The rooms, given open for the occasion were decorated with palms, ferns and Killarney and Bride roses, artistically arranged, while a tower of palms and ferns screened the orchestra, which rendered a specially selected program of music in keeping with the silver wedding day.

A group of beautiful nuptial songs was rendered by the attractive young daughter of the house, Miss Van Dyke Cleage and Mr. Edin Farley, with Mrs. Garner Strickland at the piano.

Throughout the evening, Miss Gertrude Mason and Miss Dorothy Van Dyke dispensed refreshing punch and following the musical program a delicious ice course was served, the ice being in the form of wedding bells and the individual cakes bearing the joined initials of Mr. and Mrs. Cleage.

Many beautiful gifts in silver were received by Mr. and Mrs. Cleage, who graciously welcomed their guests, about 100 of whom, had the pleasure of being present.

LUNCHEON AT COUNTRY CLUB FOR THE MISS WALLER

A beautiful luncheon was given at the Country club on Tuesday by Mrs. B. A. Bogy to compliment Misses Elizabeth and Crenshaw Waller, the charming guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crump.

The table was artistic in its appointments, the centerpiece being a large silver basket of pink chrysanthemums around which were grouped, while bouquets in pink and white were served in pink rose baskets.

The honorees were stylishly gowned, Miss Elizabeth Waller wearing a brown kitten's ear with a hat of Burgundy velvet, and Miss Crenshaw in black satin with flame colored feather hat.

The guest list included 20 friends of the hostess and honorees.

Miss Delaney Honored.

Miss Agnes Delaney, whose marriage to Mr. James William Murphy will take place on Wednesday morning, Nov. 24, was the honoree at a miscellaneous shower on Sunday afternoon given by Miss Aline Aster in her home, 1935 Nelson avenue.

The rooms were artistically decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums, the bride's chair being hidden in a bower of palms, ferns and chrysanthemums in pink and white. Little Miss Dorothy Willis, gowned in white lace over silk and trimmed in French roses and pink ribbons, presented the bride with a number of beautiful gifts which she rolled into the room in a miniature carriage. Little Miss Mildred Willis, wearing a frock of green taffeta embroidered in gold, served the delicious punch.

A game of cards followed the presentation of the gifts, pretty prizes being awarded to the winners.

Miss Aster was crowned to receive her guests in a blue crepe gown beaded in steel and wore a corsage bouquet of Richmond roses.

Miss Delaney wore a gown of blue satin embroidered in red and a corsage of roses and Mrs. John Willis, wearing a gown of black satin, assisted her sister in entertaining her guests.

At the close of the afternoon a delightful ice course in pink hearts and pink and white cake was enjoyed.

Mrs. Tyler Complimented.

A most attractive and thoroughly enjoyable affair was the surprise party given by Mrs. William English and Mrs. Ben Tyler in honor of their mother, Mrs. S. L. Tyler.

The rooms thrown open were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums.

At the close of a very happy evening a delicious salad course was served to the guests, included among whom were 50 special friends of the honoree.

Mrs. Tyler was the recipient of many lovely gifts, including a very handsome present from the ladies of the Eastern Star, Mrs. Tyler being past worthy grand matron for Tennessee.

Announcements

MRS. TREADWELL WILL HONOR MISS RENKERT AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. Timmons Treadwell, 11, will be the charming hostess at a delightful affair on Friday afternoon, Nov. 26, when she will entertain at luncheon in special compliment to Miss Maude Renkert, whose marriage to Mr. Andrew Jackson Hays will be an event of much interest on Nov. 30.

MISSES JOHNSON AND POPE HONOREES OF BOX PARTY

Misses Mildred Johnson and Frances Pope, two of the season's charming debutantes, will be the honorees at a delightful affair on Monday evening, Nov. 29, when Mr. and Mrs. Cecil M. Norfleet will compliment them with a box party at the Orpheum theater. After the theater the members of the party will join other guests in the home of Mr. Frank Treadwell, who will entertain with a dancing party in honor of Miss Maude Renkert and Mr. Andrew Jackson Hays, whose marriage will take place on Nov. 30.

Weddings

Keller-Brugge.

Trinity Lutheran church will be the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday evening, when Miss Minnie Keller will become the bride of the Rev. Victor Brugge.

The church will be very simply but artistically decorated with ferns for the ceremony, which will take place at 8 o'clock, the Rev. M. Bruggemann officiating.

Prof. Joekel will preside at the organ and just before the entrance of the bride party a beautiful vocal number will be rendered by Mrs. Lee Broadway.

For the ceremony the bride will wear a handsome suit of brown hand-embroidered velvet with a collar of Hudson seal and a small brown velvet hat trimmed with a burnt orange feather. Her flowers will be Bride roses and valley lilies in a corsage bouquet.

The maid of honor, Miss Esther Iverson, will wear a suit of blue velvet with hat in harmony and a corsage bouquet of pink roses and valley lilies.

The Rev. Mr. Brugge will be attended by his brother, Mr. Otto Brugge.

Following the ceremony there will be an informal reception in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Earl Hock, which will be simply decorated with ferns and cut flowers. A delicious menu will be served to the guests, who will have the pleasure of viewing the many beautiful wedding gifts.

On Thursday the Rev. Mr. Brugge and his bride will leave to make their future home in Texas.

MEETINGS OF MEMPHIS WOMEN'S ORGANIZATIONS

The regular monthly meeting of the Peabody Parent-Teacher association will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. An unusually interesting program has been planned.

The T. E. L. class of the LaBelle Baptist church will hold its regular monthly business and social meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the church. Mrs. Ray Bowers will be chairman for the day. The annual election of officers will be held.

The Memphis Piano Teachers' association will meet Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the Woman's building. This is a very important meeting and members are urged to be present.

The Parent-Teacher association of Central high school will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the school. A splendid program has been arranged.

The regular meeting of the Renaissance Music circle will be held Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock with Miss Banks Jordan, 287 East street, Mrs. E. R. Barrow will be chairman for the day.

The Woman's auxiliary of Calvary church will entertain on Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock with a tea in the home of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Blaisdell, on Carr avenue. An interesting program will be rendered by some of the best talent in the city.

The Council Sewing circle will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. E. Goldbaum, on Union avenue.

The Ladies' Loyal league of the Court Avenue Presbyterian church will hold a called meeting in the church parlor immediately following the noon prayer meeting on Wednesday, which begins at 12:30 o'clock.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Edgewood Presbyterian church will hold a program meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Henry T. Winkelman, 267 South Belvedere boulevard. A meeting of the executive board will be held at 1:30 o'clock.

The applied psychology class, under the direction of the McCallum School of Applied Psychology, will meet in the Woman's building on Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock. The public is invited.

Here and There

Mrs. A. J. Heurer is spending a month's sojourn in Hot Springs, Ark., and has taken apartments at the Majestic hotel.

Mr. Saul Blumenthal left Monday for a 19 days' stay in New York.

Mrs. Frederick E. Swifts and daughters, Mary Porter and Belle Miller, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Lewis, Sr., on Dudley street, have returned to their home in Mississauga.

Mrs. Frierson Moore and daughter, Miss Virginia Moore, are spending the week in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Fontaine Moore, 1539 Vinton avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stovall, of Stovall, Miss., who were among the guests at the debutantes' ball on Friday evening have returned to their plantation, but expect to be in Memphis again to spend the week end.

CLUBDOM

WORTHY GRAND MATRON OF EASTERN STAR HERE

Mrs. Chapin, the most worthy grand matron of the Eastern Star of the World, accompanied by Mrs. Opheila Allen, worthy grand matron of Tennessee, passed through the city on Monday en route to visit the grand chapter of Arkansas. They were met by Mrs. S. L. Tyler, past worthy grand matron of Tennessee, and Mrs. Florence Buchanan, worthy matron of the Memphis chapter of the O. E. S., auxiliary, who entertained them at breakfast. They will return to Memphis on Thursday evening and will be the guests of honor at the meeting of the Memphis but the grand chapters. It is great honor for the Memphis chapter, as it is not customary for the most worthy grand matron to visit any but the grand chapters. It is possible that the most worthy grand patron, who is attending the meeting in Little Rock, will also be present. While in the city Mrs. Chapin and Mrs. Allen will be the guests of Mrs. F. P. Robertson.

Bruce School.

The Parent-Teacher association of Bruce school will meet on Friday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. The departmental pupils will have charge of the program.

Evergreen Auxiliary.

The Woman's auxiliary of the Evergreen Presbyterian church will give a unique dinner in the junior rooms of the church at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening for the young women of the Christian Endeavor and prospective members, and their mothers. The affair will be on the order of the Father and Son banquet which have become so popular in the churches.

Nineteenth Century Club.

Members of the Nineteenth Century club may now make their reservations with Mrs. Walter Fraser at the club for the annual Thanksgiving luncheon, which will be given on Monday.

Mrs. Frank Purnell, assisted by Mrs. Horace Hull, will have charge of the decorations, and Mrs. W. A. Bickford will arrange the musical program. A delicious turkey menu will be served under the supervision of Mrs. G. A. Lavison. The guest list will be limited to 200.

Home Economic Department.

Under the very able chairmanship of Mrs. W. W. Seagirt, the home economics department of the Nineteenth Century club will have its first meeting Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

At this meeting Mrs. Mary Baker will demonstrate breakfast dishes. Such an interesting subject in such capable hands will doubtless attract many club members.

Every member is cordially invited to attend.

Turkey Dinners.

The Ladies' auxiliary of Westminster Presbyterian church will serve turkey dinners for 9 weeks on South Second street, beginning on Tuesday from 11 to 2 o'clock.

Y. W. A. K. Dramatic Class.

The Y. W. A. K. dramatic class will hold its regular weekly meeting on Wednesday evening at 8:15 o'clock at the studio of Miss Fredrica Magnus, in the Woman's building. Individual pantomime will be given by the members. The class will also hold an informal discussion of Richelieu in preparation of Mr. Southwick's lecture on this play. All members are urged to be present and others wishing to join are cordially invited.

Opera Postponed.

The presentation of selections from the opera "Aida," planned by members of the Opera club for Saturday afternoon, has been postponed until Saturday evening, Nov. 27 at 8 o'clock at the Hotel Gayoso. The change was made on account of the illness of Mrs. Murrill, who is to sing the leading role.

French Class.

The French classes of the Nineteenth Century club will meet on Thursday morning from 9:15 to 11 o'clock. At 11 o'clock Mrs. George Gunther will make a talk on Louis XVI.

Commodore Perry.

Mrs. Edwin R. Washburn, chairman of the Pilgrim tercentenary committee of the Commodore Perry chapter, D. C. R., calls a meeting of her committee, and those members who are to take part in the program, for Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Hotel Gayoso. This is a very important meeting and all members are requested to be present.

Les Passes Dance.

Members of the Les Passes club will entertain with a dancing party on Wednesday evening at the Country club. This is one of the most eagerly anticipated affairs of the week.

Organ Recital.

An organ recital will be given on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Central Cumberland Presbyterian church, Dudley street and Linden avenue. Mrs. Charles G. Moon is the organist for the evening and an excellent program is being planned.

CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK

November 15-20

More Books in the Home

E. H. Clarke & Bro.

Booksellers and Stationers

18 S. MAIN STREET.

FAY BELL GIFT SHOP

The Tiny Shop Teeming With

Timely Things for Everybody

Select Your Xmas Cards in Comfort

in the Piccadilly

105 S. Court Main 2218

J. W. Norris & Co.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

275 Madison. Telephone 585.

BAPTISTS TO JOIN IN THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The Baptist churches of the city will join in a union Thanksgiving service at the First Baptist church at 10:30 a.m. Thanksgiving day, according to plans perfected at the regular meeting of the Baptist Ministers' association, held at the Y. M. C. A. Monday.

Rev. J. H. Wright, pastor of Boulevard church, was selected to preach the Thanksgiving sermon. Plans were discussed by the ministers for holding winter Bible conference. Some of the most eminent men in the church will be engaged to appear on the program for this event. The date and place for the conference will be determined later.

KING TO HELENA.

Thos. B. King, manager of the good roads department of the Chamber of Commerce, will represent the local chamber as a guest at the annual banquet given by the Helena, Ark., chamber of commerce, Thursday night.

CHILDREN'S BOOK WEEK

November 15-20

Raddy Fox, Johnny Chuck, Pickle Porky, Paddy the Beaver at home to all children with

E. H. Clarke & Bro. Booksellers and Stationers, 18 S. MAIN ST.

Now Remodeled For Winter

The dancing pavilion has been elaborately remodeled for winter and is now ready to enjoy the continued patronage of many Memphians who have found East End Garden to be a most pleasing and entertaining amusement center.

East End Garden

W. L. VESEY, Mgr.

READ THE NEWS-SCIMITAR WANT AD

ORIENTAL RUGS

At 25% Discount!!

Every Rug Marked in Plain Figures

An unusual opportunity is hereby extended to the thousands in Memphis who love and appreciate Oriental Rugs. Regardless of the unheard of scarcity of these gems from the east, I have been able to secure a tremendous stock, consisting of the most magnificent masterpieces ever brought to the city of Memphis. Oriental Rugs are neither declining in values, nor are they expected to decline at any future date, owing to the growing demand of the general public for a higher standard of art which always means increase in value.

Beginning Monday morning, Nov. 15, 1920, I shall leave my entire stock to the mercy of those willing to buy at 25 per cent discount. This is being done only because large sums of money have to be raised, regardless of cost or value. You are cordially invited to attend this gigantic sale and you are also assured that each rug must be seen to be appreciated. My eighteen-year record in Memphis will back my statements.

S. ABO SAMRA

Display at Rhodes Furniture Co. Main and Jefferson

The Woman Who Demands The Best In Material, Workmanship and Style

All Sizes Here

Bry's

Plain or Fur Trim

Here Are Values Not to Be Duplicated

SUITS

Large assortment of winter suits, made in the season's most popular materials. Yalama cloth, velour, tricotine and broadcloth; most of the suits are fur trimmed. Styles that will suit the most fastidious woman.

$24.95

Suits are handsomely lined with rich fall silks and ones that will give excellent wear. These suits denote styles that you have not seen this fall and ones that you will marvel at their eloquence.

Women's and misses' sizes, made in the most charming models; some have the handsome embroidery effects, others have the braided designs and some are the smart plain tailored effects.

(Third Floor.)

LODGE NOTICES

Lodge notices will be inserted without charge if mailed or brought to The News-Scimitar office.

PARK AVENUE LODGE No. 32, F. & A. M. will confer the E. A. degree, beginning at 7 p.m. Masonic temple, corner Cooper and Carr avenues. Visiting brothers welcome. H. H. CHASE, W. M.

LOYD L. GOUGH, Secretary.

DEATH NOTICES

Death notices will be inserted without charge if presented for publication by burial director or authorized person.

O'BRIEN—At residence, 110 Exchange avenue, Monday evening, Nov. 15, 1920, at 7:30 o'clock, Thomas, son of Mrs. Gerald O'Brien and holder of John William and Edward O'Brien.

Funeral will take place from the funeral parlors of John J. Collins, 812 Popular avenue tomorrow (Wednesday) morning at 10 o'clock. Friends invited. Interment in Calvary cemetery.

DUNLAP—At Dallas, Tex., Monday morning, Nov. 15, 1920, Devereux Dunlap, husband of Virginia Price Dunlap, interned in Dallas, Tex.

WILLIAMS—Suddenly, in this city, Monday afternoon, Nov. 15, 1920, at 1:50 o'clock, Laura Williams, 67 years of age, mother of J. M. Williams and Mrs. Speed Franklin.

Due notice of funeral will be given.

CRAYTON—At residence, 221 North Main street, Nov. 14, 1920, at 8:13 o'clock, Evelyn, beloved wife of Henry Crayton, daughter of the late Ed Davis of Valley lodge No. 120, and Mrs. Rosa Haynes, stepdaughter of Will Haynes, niece of Jim Green, Willie Hays and Mrs. Estelle Huggins, of Edmond, Ark.; Mrs. Harriet Coleman and Mrs. Quinia Boyd, of Atoka, Okla.; Mrs. Aggie Atkins, of Memphis, Tenn.; cousin of Miss Lena Canon, of St. Louis, Mo.; Miss Ida Jones, of Kansas City, Mo.; She leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn her death.

Funeral from St. Stephen's Baptist church, Wednesday, Nov. 17, at 10 o'clock. Rev. W. W. Whitton will officiate.

Kansas City, Mo.; St. Louis, Mo.; Chicago, Ill.; Toledo, O.; Selma, O.; and Cleveland, O.; papers please copy. Scott-Wilkinson Undertaking company, funeral directors.